Listening to you as you run through the trees
The wind whispers no
Looking at your smile brings me down upon my knees
I don't have to go

Are you feeling alright?
Are you feeling low?
Are you feeling alright?
Are you feeling low?

Looking at your hair as it blows in the breeze
I long to hear you laugh
Looking in your eyes
And that's all that I'll see
Reflections of the past

Are you feeling alright?
You're free at last
Are you feeling alright?
You're free at last

I don't have to run
When I am with you
I don't hide my fear
All is said and done
When I'm next to you
I won't cry no tears

I'll be feeling alright
When I can't feel
I'll be feeling alright
When I can't feel
