

Susanna Hoffs "Falling"

Visit "Falling" on MotoLyrics.com

Piece by piece, I come undone, lose my equilibrium
I crash but I don't care
Nothing to hold on to, I won't look back
I'll look for you and I'm almost there

I am falling for you

I come undone, piece by piece
I'm overcome, overcome
Come undone, come undone
On the floor against the wall

To the sounds of stars, I fall so hard
But I don't care
All around and down we go
Swimming in the undertow, with you there is no fear

I am falling for you

Piece by piece, you come undone
Lose your equilibrium
We crash, but we don't care

I am falling for you
