They say sister take your time it's better that you wait Better if you show some restraint when There's too much on your plate and when time can't seem to find you and all along you still remain

I tell you patience won't change a thing Patience won't change a thing

They say sister go out and get yours go on and get what you deserve Place yourself up on that filthy ladder you just better not get burned. and when you have all that money can buy and still you roam the earth I tell you money won't heal the hurt money won't heal the hurt

Chorus:

I tell you that love, will love, will, love, love, will they say sister know your place this is a man's world you better leave it up to us this ain't no place for little girls so, you work so hard you work so hard even try with all your might but perfect won't make it right oh perfect won't make it right
