We are alone by midnight
And you know you love and lost
We are alone by midnight
And you know you love and lost
Oh you know you be crying for your baby
You'll want him back at any cause

Oh how you've got a lost lover blues
People you know that ain't no lie
People yes, you know that ain't no lie
All the world can feel so useless
You know you can feel a lie, you could die *solo*

Oh I have a blues for you baby
That's the worst feeling that a man can get
Yes people,
Worst feeling that a man and woman can get
Oh I had left in my pillows
And it's all soaking wet
