Well you watched the sun Gazed at a star and it won't be long it won't be long.

Before you rust,
come try your luck
It's just a plan Kafka said

Well careless driver steps on the brake Better love the envy that you create Better watch yourself
Watch yourself

Are you ready or not baby let's go Kick your hair back
and watch it in slo-mo

For all you pretty ones,
ya hum along in oblivion
Afraid to be alone,
Your all made up to be someone

Oh, you pretty ones,
you fade away and then come undone
Got to find a better way, to mold your skin or so they say

That's right

Such lofty hymns, a kiss through the wind
And take good care, like you ever cared

It's bittersweet
the kiss goodnight Elevator to the bright side of life,
That's all you know

The story goes

Tightrope walking much tripping on clovers Dissolution yourself from your brothers

For all you pretty ones,
ya hum along in oblivion
Afraid to be alone,
Your all made up to be someone

Oh, you pretty ones,
You fade away and then come undone
You got to find a better way,
to mold your skin or so they say

That's right...

Oh, that's right...

Yeah...

For all you pretty ones,
Afraid to be alone,

Oh, you pretty ones,
You got to find a better way,

to mold your skin or so they say 2X's

that's right 3X's
