It's about time, ready to break it
When I walk about, I battle to make it
Doing what they call the best I can
You starfucker type caviar daydream
I'm gonna get away I say I said maybe

Blooming in the meadow
Think I'm leavin'
And that's why
I'm going out of my head
Wish I was dead

I'm feeling lo-fi
I bottle up and explode
My engines have blown
So head down I dive
I'm feeling lo-fi

Crash boom bang
Can't remember my name
I hit it head on
But I'm feeling no pain

What's it gonna take to make me free
Jump back, kick stop all the way
I bet you're guessing what I'm trying to say
Always a mystery everyday

And that's why
I'm here to blow it sky high
And let it fly
Time waits for no one
And that's why
