beginners luck, white legs in and out, of a sleep behind the wheel, black eyes like to scream, you do if you can feel the glass breaks, glass shattering find your angel, lose your hobby everybody, you gotta do something right if you find love hold on tight don't push, your love away

then on the walk on my way back home i get a call from a friend on the telephone he says come here i've got this girl to see but beware, love isnt always free upon first glance, i got so hungry forbidden fruits, you gotta taste them i took one bite, we all take chances poison lips, doomed romances don't push, your love away (don't push your love away)

a kiss of death, on the door thats what you get, for takin home a whore i shouldnt say that, it doesnt sound nice faith removes my fear sometimes i'm too shy, you're too sharp together we can work eachother out loves too quick, she's always been we're in your bed, drunk with adrenaline

and i can see better days we can share, love can save you can hide in yourself we can go our seperate ways and i've seen better days pass me by in a haze and we've seen better days pass us by in a haze i've seen better days
