

Exit, The "Still Waiting" out of site and out of mind happens every single time and now i'm walkin all alone watch my shadows shrink and grow thinking of you thinking of me and all the miles in between one question i deserve

how long till it hurts

waiting how long till it hurts here's my letter hope you like i know the grammer ain't so right and what i mean may not get through like the way it is when i'm with you waiting for you waiting for me the hours in between

one question i deserve

still waiting i've been knocked down before i'll be knocked down again
