And the first thing you'll do is to stop pretending
Stop pretending, you're always pretending
The first thing you'll do is to stop pretending
There's no need to pretend

And the next thing you'll do is go down to the water
Go down to the water, down to the water
The next thing you'll do is to go down to the water
And cry down tears

Your tears, beautiful tears
Let down your tears
Beautiful tears
Beautiful, beautiful tears

You thought, you thought, if you ever started
If you ever started, if you ever started
You thought, you thought, if you ever started
Your tears would never end

Your tears, beautiful tears
Let down your tears, beautiful tears
Beautiful, beautiful tears

You can cry for yourself, you can cry for the others
You can cry for yourself, you can cry for the others
You can cry for your country, you can cry for your mother
Beautiful, beautiful tears

Your tears, beautiful tears
Let down your tears, beautiful tears
Beautiful, beautiful tears

And the first thing you'll do is to stop pretending
Stop pretending, you're always pretending
The first thing you'll do is to stop pretending
There's no need to pretend
