As we were facing
Down to the river of darkness
I called on the night to protect us
As we were together
And as it was us
A great white MOON ROSE before us

Ah just one kind look
From the LADY of the LAMP
Lean down from the sky to guide us
A faded flower in her lily-white hand
On her long slow dance towards her LOVER

It's the MOON going HOME
Her face in the clouds
A great crowd of stars all around her
She comes to her window
With a CANDLE in her hand
On her long slow dance towards her lover

It's the MOON going HOME
It's the MOON going HOME

Ah just one kind look
From the Lady of the Lamp
Lean down from the sky
To guide us
A faded flower in her lily-white hand
On her long SLOW DANCE towards her lover

It's the moon going home
It's the moon going home
