I pulled these drapes walked these floors once before

At first I couldn't place it but now I'm sure of it

And down the street now it occurs to me

There should be pairs of shoes hung from wires in memorial

That's all I can recollect from east to west

I got to move or get on to where I'm going so where you gonna go?

I could swear we were close to home

Or am I on Jupiter just waving my arms at you

I s.o.s. across the universe

I got this bit rehearsed

Don't know which signals that I'm throwing talking robotics to nobody

I s.o.s. across the universe

I get you all to watch 'til we get heard

I shut these gates locked these doors braced for more

And it first I couldn't face it get on with it I told you

I got wherewithal to leap from beach to beach

I got the shoes not the fire of a warrior

So I keep sifting through this sand from fist to hand

And I'll keep digging at my seat 'til the waters meet

And below below I hear them s.o.s. beneath from each to each

I s.o.s. across the universe

I get you all to watch til we get heard

Now once the worlds start to roll

I get a little below

Just a little bit too low

Right this way I want to feel this rain
