Death is the answer to my prayers
Yeah!

You think that you can see right through me
Your reign is watched just like your lies
I know you think you thought you knew me
Satans reflection's in my eyes
Yeah!

There are no questions left to answer
There is no problem to be solved
My thoughts are eating me like cancer
He took my life, he takes them all
Yeah!

You are the cause of all my pain
Pulling and pleading in my brain
Nothing to lose, nothing to gain
You are the reason I'm insane!

You're not turning the screw
And I'm turning on you
You're not turning the screw
And I'm turning on you

The less air I breathe,
The more I see,
That you take a little piece of my heart

The more my eyes can see,
The less I breathe,
You know you take a little piece of my...

All words are falling on deaf ears
The more you talk, the less I care
Drowning in silence all these years
Death is the answer to my prayers
Yeah!
