[Verse 1 - Guru]

Yeah (Big EZ) we doin' this for da love (Gifted Universal)
Layin in the cut doin this for da love "Hip-hop" Bout to blow this shit out the frame We do it for the love "..what hip hop's supposed to sound like"
As nights turn to days, days go back to nights, we be seekin' the light
And keeping it tight up in the street life
I meet life, head on, no holds barred Born with a hearts of gold, now mostly cold and scarred
But fuck that, nigga, there ain't no time to dwell on The mystics and obstacles that ya fell on It's time to add on and put some flesh upon the skeleton Nobody wins when we all lose Acceptin the straps this year me and my niggaz are refused
We all choose instead to go all out Till the radiation until the nuclear fall out, and Even then rhymes are like protective suits
Only worn by the members of our selected troop What's the scoop nigga? We know this rap shit makes money
But whether I come through dift or whether I come through bummy
I spit razor type rhymes off my dome son lovely
