I wander about her

I wander where she went from her

Still wonder about her

But nothing 's coming into clear

Since she left me al along my days go bye like this Well I'm thinking about her and all the thinks she used to say

Still thinking about her

Well something is getting in the way

I remember when she told me, She 'ld get up and leave me some day

Ah yeah

When I travel in circle thru the city, just waiting for the lights to change

But right about when man light hit me, moonlight gets me feeling kind a crazy.

Ah Yeah

I wander about her

does she still wear that same old ring

No ,I still wander about her and I know it ain't no big thing

Well she left me all alone now

And I 'm waiting for my phone to ring

I have been dreaming about her

I guess I never really knew that living without her was more than I could ever do caus' she ain't coming back no she ain't coming back no she ain't coming back because there is nothing to come back to
