See the girl with her dreams of gold
She see's her paradise on the screen
Win or lose she wants it all
And for her there's no in-between

See the boy with the leather on
He's gonna be the next James Dean
King of Hollywood there ain't no doubt
That he's the coolest you've ever seen

Another lost soul

Mister can you line 'em up again
You know I'm feeling kind of low
I lost my family I lost my friends
These streets are all I know
Sell your body to make a buck
To buy a needle and ease your pain
Another fix, another fk
And you do it all again

Another lost soul

See the girl with her dreams of gold
She see'her paradise on the screen
Win or lose she wants it all
And for her there's no in-between

See the boy with the leather on
He's gonna be the next James Dean
King of Hollywood there ain't no doubt
That he's the coolest you've ever seen

Another lost soul
