Lie to me, for a short while
Lay with me, for a short while
I will wear my fears for you
I will wear my fears for you

Lay me down there's nothing done
Closed eyes bring change
Too great, lost sometimes
Closed eyes bring change
Too great, lost sometimes
I will wear my fears for you

Ask a question
Not just any
What am i, about being lost

Closed eyes bring change
Too great, lost sometimes
I will wear my fears for you

Lie to me, for a short while
Lay with me, for a short while
I will wear my fears for you
I will wear my fears for you
Last caress and nothing done

Ask a question
Not just any
What am i, about being lost
Ask a question, question, question live version of 'p.r.d. chaos' has karl shouting
"raging fucking speedhorn!" at the end
