Caffeine and nicotine gets us through the day
The weed and alcohol take the pain away
So why don't we love a little and pretend we're in a movie

We can get down or we can get dirty
Jersey shore was every bit romantic
Get back in the car and sing back seat love song

Cause nobody gives a fuck about you or your problems
Open the window and scream a little louder
Jersey shore gets everyone romantic
A little bit longer for this back seat love song
Back seat love song

Today is another day to keep the anger at bay
With a girl that's not afraid to give it all away
So why don't we live a little, we can drink away the anxious
Better off just stoned and wasted
Jersey shore was every bit romantic
Get back in the car and sing back seat love song

Cause nobody gives a fuck about you or your problems
Open the window and scream a little louder
Jersey shore gets everyone romantic
A little bit longer for this back seat love song
Back seat love song

Step it up, live it down, come on and let's go
Step it up, live it down, come on and let's go
Get me up, bring you down, come on and let's go
Get me up, bring you down, come on and let's go

I don't know where we're going, we're going
Do you know where we're going, we're going?
I don't know where we're going, we're going
Girl do me right here

Cause nobody gives a fuck about you or your problems
Open the window and scream a little louder
Jersey shore gets everyone romantic

A little bit longer for this back seat love song
Cause nobody gives a fuck about you or your problems
Open the window and scream a little louder
Jersey shore gets everyone romantic
A little bit longer for this back seat love song
