Two people living in this space and time
Two bodies
But still one soul and one mind.
We'll be together even though we're apart
We're connected by heart.
You and I will never die
'cause our love will forever fly
You and me live eternally
You and me will always be
'cause we see eye to eye
We see heart to heart
'cause you and I will never part.
'Cause we are one for all and all for one
'cause you and I have just begun.
We found love
We found love
We found love
We found love
Don't you know we found love
We found love
We found love
We found love.
You and I will never die
'cause our love will forever fly
You and me live eternally
You and me will always be
'cause we see eye to eye
We see heart to heart
'cause you and I will never part.
'Cause we are one for all and all for one
'cause you and I have just begun.
We found love
We found love
We found love
We found love
Don't you know we found love
We found love
We found love
We found love.
We found love
Yeah-yeah-yeah
We found love

Yeah-yeah-yeah!
