Said I wouldn't but I here I am
About to follow my heart off these cliffs again
Leave good sense and caution on the ledge behind me
I just want to feel that rushing wind
Stop all this double guessing
After all only heaven knows
If theres a curse or blessing
Waitin for me somewhere below

And all I gotta do is fall
Close my eyes and lean
Love will find the wings
I don't have to understand
Where it's going to lead
How I'm going to land
If this love will fly at all
All I've gotta do is fall

I feel your heart beating a thousand miles a minute
The points of no return are flying past
This ain't no game we're playing
Let's just out and say it
Sometimes you've gotta call the kettle black
I ain't overanalyzing
Dehumanizing this emotional thing
The hard parts realizing
I've made it harder than it has to be

All I gotta do is fall
Close my eyes and lean
Love will find the wings
I don't have to understand
Where it's going to lead
How I'm going to land
If this love will fly at all
All I've gotta do is fall

The hard part is realizing
I've made it harder than it has to be
When.. all I gotta do is fall
Close my eyes and lean
Love will find the wings

I don't have to understand
Where it's going to lead
How I'm going to land
If this love will fly at all
All I've is gotta do is fall
All I've got to do
All I've got to do is fall
