Take a moment
hear the sky take notice you fear a lie don't kill another dream tonight don't run from soemthing you can't fight don't wait for sunshine in an endless night you'll be sorry...when I take a look at all the tears you cried I'm sorry...sorry

see the pain that hides behind your eyes
I'm sorry...sorry
see the sadness through your sidguise
it's so sorry...sorry
Hold on to it and i think you'll find that you're sorry...sorry now abd so falls the rain it won't cleanse the stain you still the pain inside so don't kill another dream tonight don't run from something you can't fight

see the pain that hides behind your eyes
I'm sorry...sorry
that you're sorry...sorry now
