You always felt alone
You wanted to run and go
Try to make it on your own
With your hurt and sorrow

There's a place where you can seek His face
But it's deep inside
It's no easy task but once you ask
You'll find a place to hide

I know you never thought you could find love
Deep inside your heart
Someone gave His life so you could have love
Deep inside your heart

Now your heart has grown so cold
You've pushed away your friends
And now you're so alone
Is it what you wanted?

There's a Friend who'll be there 'till the end
If you ask Him to
Let your grief become belief in something
You can hold on to

I know you never thought you could find love
Deep inside your heart
Someone gave His life so you could have love
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart

(House!)

There's a place where you can seek His face
But it's deep inside
It's no easy task but once you ask
You'll find a place to hide

I know you never thought you could find love
Deep inside your heart

Someone gave His life so you could have love
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
Deep inside your heart
