Well you call your mama Tiger
And we all know you are lying And your boyfriends name is Eagle, and he lives up in the sky (high, high)

Watch out the tiger don't claw the eagle's eye Bit let the eagle take the tiger by surprise (scratch out her eyes)

So make a stand for a man honey, try to can the can Put your man in the can honey, get him while you can.
Can the can if you can ..

Well your sister's got the feline touch she touches up your mind
And your eagle lover likes his little bit of evil loving all the time

Don't let the cat get into the eagle's nest at night, Because the eagle could say "yes" without a fight (scratch out her eyes)

So make a stand for a man

Can the can, honey, Can the can....
