Invade and encompass to judge and dissect

Witness and persecute to serve and protect

To serve, and to protect to serve

To serve, and to protect to serve

Watchful and aware, constrain every movement

Admit the consequences, freedom's an illusion

Where is security governed through scrutiny?

Your privacy denied, organized and confined!

No place to hide!

No place to hide!

There is no place to hide

Plugged in your mind

Conformed design

To concede your rights

Concede your mind

Surrender to authority

All must abide and all must adhere

Future oppression becoming more clear

This is a warning so you must take heed

This coming vision is reality

Where is security governed through scrutiny?

Your privacy denied, organized and confined!

No place to hide

No place to hide
