(Verse #1)

You passed me on the street the other day

I wanted to stop you and just say

"Hello, How have you been?

It's been such a long, long time"

And I...

The impression on your face didn't say

"Hey, How are you doing?" back to me

And I was wondering why, we ever changed

Everything never fades away

(Chorus)

Isn't that what you told me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

Isn't that what you taught me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

And I passed you bye

(Verse #2)

So, I sit here and think about

All the times that we shared

And I was just wondering

How we got here?

Just wondered how I messed it up again?

And I start to tear up inside

When I think about all the times

When we lost and I walked away

When we walked away

You wanted more

(Chorus)

Isn't that what you told me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

Isn't that what you taught me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

And I passed you bye

(Verse #3)

And I'm not sitting here

Thinking 'bout how I can get you back in my life

And I wonder why everything's so hard

I'm just sitting here, watching time pass me bye

I know it's all just the same

And I know that I'm not okay

When I look myself in the mirror

And see you by my side

(Chorus)

Isn't that what you told me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

Isn't that what you taught me?

Isn't that what you showed me?

You wanted more

And I passed you bye
