Dream away the sun and the rain
Dream away noone will complain
Dream away again and again
Dream away the devil's waiting

Don't try and break the news to me
Don't say what's going on
Don't try and tell me what to do
By then i will be gone

Dream away the brightest sky
Dream away I'm ready to fly
Dream away the harder i try
Dream away the tender good-bye

Don't try and break the news to me
Don't say what's going on
Don't try and tell me what to do
By then i will be gone

Don't try and break the news to me
Don't say what's going on
Don't try and tell me what to do
By then i will be gone
By then i will be gone
I'll be gone, i'll be gone, i'll be gone,
I'll be gone
I'll be gone, i'll be gone, i'll be gone,
I'll be gone
I'll be gone, i'll be gone, i'll be gone,
I'll be gone
I'll be gone, i'll be gone, i'll be gone,
I'll be gone.
