are you swimming in her pools
ahh hha
you'll be brushing off her snow
you'll be brushing off her snow
you'll be brushing off her snow
how can you stand the cold
how can you stand the cold if your still there when it snows will you still be there when it goes will you still be there when its time to fill the pools again
will you be coming back here
will you be coming back here
will you be coming back here are you running up her river banks and tracing them like long fingers... are you running up her river banks and navigating long fingers of a man cause fingers make the hand and rivers make the land is she cradling you all oh is she cradling you all because if i call you baby she should cradle you well how does she fuckin' know
how the lines that appear are around your eyes when you are smiling are revered or the ways in which they always reappear
will you be coming back here
will you be coming back here
will you be coming back here i hope you find your mother i hope you find your mother there
hit the ground running there's a terrifying spirit its the groung you cover that terrifies me and brace yourself for the sound of bleeding cause bleeding hearts bleed
and please is not a word that i ever said quietly you said your love was fierce fierce fierce you said your love was fierce its true you said your love was fierce fierce fierce you said your love was fierce fierce fierce and i agree with you the child of the future is the child i am seeing to you said your love was fierce and i agree with you the tigers of the heart are the tigers i am seeing to
