I can hear my name ringin' baby, people talkin' 'bout
me all over town
me all over town
You been tellin' 'em that you don't love me, why did you have me actin' like a clown?

I get the blues before the sunrise, when I think about
you not lovin' me
I get the blues before the sunrise, when I think about
you not lovin' me
You know tears comes in my eyes baby, and my heart's so full of misery

Can you remember baby, when you lay down 'cross your bed
You was drinkin' that orange driver baby, yes and talkin' all out your head
You said that I love you, oh but you told me a lie Well I know you didn't mean what you was sayin' baby, so woman so long, so long, goodbye
So long!
