I thought that we could never fall
I thought that we might have it all
But I see that you needed a friend
Yeah I guess we were stranded once again
Don't take my love
The love that wants you
The love that needs you to be
Desperate and true
Don't take my love
The love that bores you
The love that calls you to say
Please don't walk away
It can kick me in the heart
It can rip me all apart
Is it real when it cuts you up inside
Like a drug when it fucks you up inside
Don't take my love
The love that wants you
The love that needs you to be
Needing me too
Don't take my love
The love that bores you
The love that calls you to say
Don't you walk away
Don't take my love
The love that wants you
The love that needs you to be
Desperate and true
Don't take my love
The love that bores you
The love that calls you to say
Please don't you walk away
Don't take my love
The love that wants you
The love that needs you
But don't you walk away
