Well, there's a man in Jerusalem
(Well, there's a man in Jerusalem, well, there's a man in Jerusalem)
There's a man child in Jerusalem
(Well, there's a man in Jerusalem, well, there's a man in Jerusalem)

There's a man, there's a man in Jerusalem
(Well, there's a man in Jerusalem, well, there's a man in Jerusalem)
And they call Him the Prince of Peace
(Well, there's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)

Well, I can tell Lord, Lord, way He walks
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
Well, I can tell the way my God He talks
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)

There's a man, woah, in Jerusalem
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
Oh, and the peace
(And they call Him Prince of Peace)

If you go down, beyond, go 'yond this world
Farther then you said, search among [Incomprehensible]
Well, you find, find my God there
By the Lord so high, do you know that I am told

Well, there is a man, oh, He's a man
(Man in Jerusalem, man in Jerusalem)
And they call Him, Prince of Peace
(And they call Him Prince of Peace

Well, He heals, heals the sick child
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
My God raised, raised of the dead

(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)

So glad there's a man still in Jerusalem
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
Oh, call Him the Prince of Peace
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)

Well, I can tell the way He walks
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
Lord, I can tell the way God talks
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)

There's a man, Lord, in Jerusalem
(There's a man in Jerusalem, there's a man in Jerusalem)
Oh, Lord and He's Prince of Peace
(And they call Him)
