Sometimes I feel we're still together

Only a touch away

Memories of you I still remember

Words that you used to say

Used to say

Stand by my side, I need you near me

Feeling you close to me

Stand by my side, I see things clearly

You're all I ever need

Spending the time we had together

Loving you more each day

It was strong

Getting so much stronger

Now we're both apart

Stand by my side

There's so many things

I must tell you

Now I must try

To change the position

And make you stay

Stand by my side

What else must I do

To convince you

Now I must try

Now I must try

Faced with another situation

We wouldn't be the same

Waiting for some communication

Feelings are bound to change

Bound to change

Stand by my side, I need you near me

Feeling you close to me

Stand by my side, I see things clearly

You're all I ever need

Spending the time we had together

Loving you more each day

It was strong

Getting so much stronger

Now we're both apart

Stand by my side

There's so many things
I must tell you
Now I must try
To change the position
And make you stay
Stand by my side
What else must I do
To convince you
Now I must try
Some other way
To make you change your mind
