Brother, brother, brother

No matter who's right and who is wrong

I just want you to know my love's still strong

I wrote you a prayer with this song

Brother, brother, brother

You told me you broke up with your wife

There's been so much suffering in your life

Thanks to the grace from above your humbled heart is light

Oh, I pray for you 'cause some day all loves ones die

Yes, I pray that we're rejoined in the afterlife

Brother, older brother

Your baby boy has his mother's eyes

With the love of you both he'll be strong and wise

Once his muscles are grown you'll be running side by side

Brother, younger brother

You and your fiancée are one

Through your kisses your love will be passed on

All the beautiful babies/children still to come

So I pray for you 'cause some day all loves ones die

Yes, I pray that we're rejoined in the afterlife

Father, father, father

Oh I love you with all my heart

You've done an amazing part

All the angels will come when you're ready to depart

Sisters, all my sisters

I didn't forget you, don't get me wrong

I express my love for each single one

In the future will come in an exclusive song

But in the meantime

Oh I pray for you 'cause someday all loves ones die

Yes, I pray that we're rejoined in the afterlife

And I pray for you 'cause someday all loved ones die

And I pray that we're rejoined in the afterlife
