Sometimes it's hard to realize
One's live ain't living
One rather denies the true loneliness
Of this ungiving
But I know I wasn't foolishly born
'Cause I wanna be loved by somebody
Am I asking too much?
Am I too impatient?
Please tell me God, that you're with me
'Cause deep down inside I'm only hungry...
Everything has its place
Every child has your grace
Oh, why do I sleep when there's so much to see
Help me help myself
'Cause I wanna be loved by somebody
Am I asking too much?
Am I too impatient?
Deep down inside I'm only hungry
To be loved too
