When I'm gone from here

Will you wait for me

When I'm far from here

Will you pray for me

Would you care for me

If I needed hospitality

Would you cry for me

If I were lying in bed

Lying in bed, dying

She says

I will be your bride

Be there truly by your side

I will be your bride

I will give my fullest heart

Now that I must go

I know you'll wait for me

They're taking me to war

To cease the enemy

Heaven's strength will grow

Within you and me

In crucial times it'll show

If we're bond as one

To make a big family

I will be...

There's no limits, life is long

There's no limits, 'cause life goes on

There's no limits, life is long

There's no boundries, 'cause life goes on

When I'm gone from here...

I will be...

There's no limits
