What'll happen when you're gone?
Miles away
And I'm all alone.
Without my best friend by my side,
I'll always remembered how we laughed and cried.

Will I know what to do?
When the sky is falling down
Will you answer me
When I'm coming out

Hear the angels sing
Let your voice ring loud and long
Ease my pain
Heal my wound
Just tell me you're coming soon

Coming soon

I see your face
I know I'm fine
You held my hand
As I crossed the line

You were there
Through the fear
And all I need is to
Hear you coming
Coming
Hear you coming
Coming
