Sank in my confusion (but I don't know why)

Lost in my illusions

I don't want to go back home (no one can understand me)

And I stay here alone (looking at the stars)

A piece of light

A piece of life

A glimmer of hope

And now I want

To bring me away

To took me in a place

Writing a letter...

.to my dear angel

Miles away from you (and from your heart)

I can't find a good reason

People said a lot of times (tomorrow will be better)

In this dark cold night (I've thought this dream was real)

So give me...

A piece of light

A piece of life

A glimmer of hope

And now I want
To bring me away
To took me in a place
Writing a letter...
to my dear angel
A piece of
A piece of
A piece of life and bring me away
Away from
Away from
Away from you and from your heart
Dream of Dream of Dream of you
All the time
All the night
Everywhere I see you...
you're my dear angel!
