

The Sweet "Dream On"

Your head lies on the pillow
Do you dream of me tonight
I'm waiting for the sunshine
To bring the morning light

To kiss your cheek and wake you
From your sleep would not be right
So gentle like a baby
I'll keep you warm tonight

Let the moonlight cast the shadows
Of our love forever more
Dawn will break and take them away
Like it always has before

But you are here, I know it's real
If I reach out my hand and touch you
So I'll leave you softly dreaming
That I'm making love to you

Dream on, you little girl
Dream on, you little girl
Dream on, dream on, you little girl

Dream on, you little girl
Dream on, you little girl
Dream on, dream on, you little girl

Dream on
(Why don't you dream on?)
Dream on
(Dream on, dream on, little girl)
Dream on
