

The Sweet "Midnight to Daylight"

Her face was turnin' red
And everybody's talkin' 'bout
The way that she's preferred

Was it six or seventeen?
And old enough to know about
The things that should be clean
And where she should have been

The things that I do at midnight
You ain't gonna say at daylight

I looked into a ring
A voice from way inside said
"Oh you pretty thing"

My head was in a state
And every time you came with me
You said that you were late
I should have had you mate

The things that I do at midnight
You ain't gonna say at daylight

The things that I do at midnight
You ain't gonna say at daylight
