"High On Love"

I wish that you could see me now
I'm driving in my beat-up car
Heading down to who knows where
The wind is blowing in my hair
I wish that you could feel this way
And feel the wind of sweet release
Money could never pay for such an awesome day

I never thought that I could feel this good again
But look at me here I am a brand new man

And I don't wanna run
I don't wanna hide from this feeling
I'm willing to fight
I'm willing to try to reach higher
I wish that everyone of you
Could feel the way I do
So let the whole world know
I am high on love

I wish that you could see me now
I'm passing by a sandy beach
My t-top's down the sun is hot
I'm loving every moment that I've got
My heart is blooming with your love
I've been touched by heaven above
Your name is written in my heart
You've given me a brand new start

I never thought that I could feel this good again
But look at me here I am a brand new man

And I don't wanna run
I don't wanna hide from this feeling
I'm willing to fight
I'm willing to try to reach higher
I wish that everyone of you
Could feel the way I do
So let the whole world know
I am high on love

I wanna go a little deeper
I wanna fly a little higher
I'm not ashamed to let it show
So let the whole world now

And I don't wanna run
I don't wanna hide from this feeling
I'm willing to fight
I'm willing to try to reach higher
I wish that everyone of you
Could feel the way I do
So let the whole world know
I am high on love
