The darkest shade of grey, stretched out in front of us

The darkest shade of black, with specs of white surrounding us

Well I don't know where I am, but when I figure it out I'll write you

Yeah, drive on through the night, no telling when we'll get there

CHORUS: (x2)

And I feel right at home

I'm lost and I don't care

Yeah I feel right at home

Just take me anywhere

So crack open your window, and let the cold air hit your face,

You're far away from home, so find comfort in this place

The sound of the radio, the only thing that pulls us through

While the whole world is asleep I'll smoke all night to make it through

CHORUS: (x2)

And I feel right at home

I'm lost and I don't care

Yeah I feel right at home

Just take me anywhere

BRIDGE: (x3)

So welcome to my home away from home

Four wheels on the pavement and my best friends

Well, that's all I need

CHORUS: (x3)

And I feel right at home

I'm lost and I don't care

Just take me anywhere
