Guess we've reached the grand finale
I'll take a bow as the curtains close
Oh all my life I'll remember this, I hope
And what it meant to live

Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be OK
Everything's gonna be alright

Can you take my breath away
Can you change my life today
Is everything gonna be OK

One last chord on my piano
One last drag on my cigarette
Oh, one final look I'll take at you
One last goodbye forever

Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be OK
Everything's gonna be alright

Can you take my breath away
Can you change my life today
Is everything gonna be OK

My famous last words echo
As I put down my pride and close the doors
I'm burned and scarred from wasted time
I'm bruised by thoughts of you

Everything's gonna be alright
Everything's gonna be OK
Everything's gonna be alright

Can you take my breath away
Can you change my life today
Is everything gonna be OK
