Whoah...whoah...
Whoah...whoah...
Tokyo...Tokyo...
Tokyo...Tokyo...

It started on the perfect night (oooh...)
There were stars above everything was fairytale-like
So she thought I'll seize the moment
Have some fun then say goodbye to him
She didn't know it was the first night of the end (oh...)

Things will never be the same (oh)
For the girl from Tokyo (from Tokyo)
No one ever sees the pain (the pain)
Of the girl from Tokyo
Things will never be the same (oooh)
For the girl from Tokyo (from Tokyo)
And no one ever sees the pain (oooh)
Of the girl from Tokyo

Tokyo...Tokyo...
Tokyo...Tokyo...

A three letter raven in his touch (oooh...)
Funny how it'd give a stranger so much trust
She forgot his name but not his face
A ghost from the past to share her fate
And now one night controls her days (oh...)

Things will never be the same (never)
For the girl from Tokyo (oh)
And no one ever sees the pain (no one knows the pain...)
Of the girl from Tokyo
Did you ever feel alone (oh no)
Did you know that she was feeling alone in Tokyo (oooh
oh)
Things will never be the same (oh no)
For the girl from Tokyo

Whoah...whoah...
Whoah...whoah...

(Oh...)
A three letter raven in his touch...
(Girl from Tokyo)
It's funny how it'd give a stranger so much trust...
(Did you ever feel alone)
She doesn't know his name but she knows his face
(Did you know that she was feeling alone in Tokyo)
And that one night...
It was the first night of the end oh
(For the girl from Tokyo)

Things will never be the same (oh no)
For the girl from Tokyo (from Tokyo)
And no one ever sees the pain (oh)
Of the girl from Tokyo
Did you ever feel alone (oh)
Did you know that she was feeling alone in Tokyo (oh alone alone alone alone alone)
Things will never be the same
For the girl from Tokyo

Whoah...whoah...
Whoah...whoah...

For the girl from Tokyo
Did you ever feel alone (all alone)
Did you know that she was feeling alone in Tokyo (in Tokyo)
Things will never be the same (oh no)
For the girl from Tokyo
