You're looking at me like I should care
You're heading my way, oh don't you dare
Don't think you can handle me
Cuz I am not just a silly game
So you wanna talk about me drink
Wanna know what I do and hear how I think
Oh please player give me a break
Cuz all your sleaze is too much to take

I know you think that you're a heartbreaker
I know you think that you're a lovmaker
I gotta tell you all that I have heard
No, you're never gonna break this heart of mine, no no

Is this something new for me to see
Or the same old shit I hear everyday
Just say goodbye and move on Cuz all your crap doesn't turn me on

I know you think that you're a heartbreaker
I know you think that you're a lovmaker
I gotta tell you all that I have heard
No, you're never gonna break this heart of mine, no no

There you go with the same old game
You change your clothes but it's always the same
I can't stand to look at your face
You'd do anything to get laid
Heartbreaker...

Yeah, yeah, break this heart of mine

I know you think that you're a heartbreaker
I know you think that you're a lovmaker
I gotta tell you all that I have heard
No, you're never gonna break this heart of mine, no no

Heartbreaker, heartbreaker, heartbreaker...
