I never really try to be positive
I'm too damn busy being negative
So focused on what I get
And never understand what it means to live
You know we all love to just complain
But maybe we should try to rearrange
There's always someone
Who's got it worse than you

(chorus)
Life is so cool
Life is so cool
Oh yeah
From a different point of view
Life is so cool
Life is so cool
Oh yeah
From a different point of view

(verse 2)
We're all so busy tryin'to get ahead
Got a pillow of fear when we go to bed
We're never satisfied
The grass is greener on the other side
We're so distracted with the jealousy
Forget it's in our hands to stop the agony
Will you ever be content
On your side of the fence?

(verse 3)
Maybe you're the guy who needs a second chance
Maybe you're the girl who's never asked to dance
Maybe you're lonely soul
A single mother scared and all alone
Gotta remember we live what we choose
It's not what you say It's what you do
And the life you want
Is the life you have to make
