I've got a spider in my head
He crawls inside when I'm in bed
Seen halfway, halfway through my brain
If I were him I might just do the same

I've got a spider in my head (In my head)
He helps me think and I keep him fed
It helps to take, take that pain away
Sometimes I speak to him and this is what I say:

When you are with me I can see clearly
You've got me feeling right,
If you should leave me
Spider believe me,
My heart would slowly die

Now ohhh (x2)

I'm pleased to say it's working well
My train of thought shut to hell,

Seen her shake when I did not tell
Have I lost my mind?
Well it's too late to tell

I've got a spider in my head
He crawls inside when I'm in bed
Seen halfway, halfway through my brain
If I were him I might just do the same

When you are with me I can see clearly
You've got me feeling right (Got me feeling right)
If you should leave me
Spider believe me,
My heart would slowly die

Now ohhh (x2)

La la la la la (x6)

Now ohhh (x2)

Now ohhh
I've got a spider in my head (x2)
