You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me, believe me now
You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me

You know I'll make your days shine brighter
And your nights much happier, honey
You know I've always wanted to love you, girl
As the stars shine by night

You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me, believe me now
You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me

You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me, believe me now
You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me

You know I'll make your days shine brighter
And your nights much happier, honey
You know I've always wanted to love you, girl
As the stars shine by night

You need a love that's shocking
You better call on me, believe me now...
