"Tug Of War"

We used to lie in our small town underground.
And everyday we'd waste our time and let life slip away.
We were looking for a simple place to stand.
And he found Your hand.

He's moved up state.
With a brand new bag of tea.
Bold as a lion.
There's no denying

That Tuggy's in New York, preaching at the dime store.
"Tuggy save a sinner for me."

I can't believe that I might have his motivation down inside of me.
He is the inspiration that I wish to be.
Never backing down or giving in
My best friend Ben...

He's moved up state.
With a brand new bag of tea.
Bold as a lion.
There's no denying

That Tuggy's in New York, preaching at the dime store.
"Tuggy save a sinner for me."
