The beauty queens. The fashion scenes.
It ain't nothing I've never seen before.
The golden rule. You've got to be cool,
But you're a fool if you believe it.
Take all my everything,
And make it brand new
Cause You are everything

(Chorus)

Give me something more that I've never seen before
Cause everything's all been done.
If there's something new, it can only come from You
You're the only thing new under the sun.

They chase their dreams in magazines and movie screens.
That don't mean anything.
It's not for me, cause I don't agree.
I don't want to be less than You want me to be.

(Chorus)

Under the sun, nana-na-na...

(Chorus)
