You

Reappearing in my mind

You were right & I was blind

But that was long ago

Now

Do I ever cross your mind

Are your memories like mine

OR have they let you go

After all the lives I've lived through

All these years

I had to go so far without you

Now it's clear

You were my favorite love

That was my favorite year

When we

We were young forever yesterday

Fools and little children run away

If we could go back there, would we stay?

After all the loves I've lived through

All these years

I had to go so far without you

Now it's clear

You were my favorite love

That was my favorite year

You were my favorite love

That was my favorite year
