Tell you man I'm stuck on this lovely girl of course to me u'know she mean all the world but then she like another guy I fall down dead she never see the tears I cry please please please do not go how long can the days go on when my love is so strong and I know I cannot tell a lie I wanna see him go bye bye bye bye bye bye bye bye now I wonder what she would say if I told her that I felt this way y'know it might make her turn either way so all I can do is patiently pray pray pray pray pray tell yuo man I'm stuck on this lovely girl and y'know I could travel all over the whole world
you hurt me so I got something to show you
