I can't go out no more
I just better stay at home I just better stay all alone 'cause what am I gonna do if I see someone I'd like to do something to what am I gonna say if I see someone I'd like to say something to
if I see someone who'd like to do something too
I can't help being careful did you notice the world that we're living in did you notice did you see something might happen to me did you notice a chill in the wind people are dying just because they had a little girlfriend is not my girlfriend my neighbor is not my lover boyfriend is not my boyfriend my brother is not my lover behavior is not my behavior my neighbor is not my savior didn't you notice the world
